Summary of Legislation: This bill requires a person who holds a valid license to carry a handgun to immediately notify the superintendent of the state police, in writing, of a name or address change.

Effective Date: July 1, 2001.

Explanation of State Expenditures: The Indiana State Police (State Police) could possibly experience a minimal increase in administrative expenses associated with the provisions of this bill. The specific effects are currently indeterminable, and would depend upon the number of licensees who move at any given time during a fiscal year.

Funding for the State Police originates from the state General Fund and the Motor Vehicle Highway Fund.

Background- The State Police currently charges a fee of $5 for qualified and $15 for unlimited handgun licenses (almost all licenses issued are unlimited) Approximately 70,000 to 80,000 handgun licenses are issued each year. Licensing fees are deposited into the State General Fund.
